

Dear Visitor,

On behalf of The Global Proposal Corporation, I would like to extend a warm welcome to our website. We are thrilled that you have taken the time to visit us online.

The Global Proposal Corporation is a leading provider of proposal development services to businesses, NGOs, and nonprofits. We have a team of experienced professionals who are dedicated to helping our clients win more proposals, more grants, and more business.

We offer a wide range of services to support your organization, including:

- Capture Planning & Strategy: We excel in business development and growth, offering services such as opportunity research and identification, pipeline development, and crafting Win Themes and differentiators.
- Proposal Writing & Management: From RFX analysis to proposal design and development, we offer comprehensive solutions, including assembling a proficient proposal writing and editing team, proposal evaluation, and review.
- Grant Writing Support: Catering to nonprofit and educational institutions, our grants team provides comprehensive support throughout the grant process, ensuring compelling and compliant grant responses.
- Proposal Professional Staffing: Leveraging our global network, we assist clients in identifying and hiring qualified proposal professionals to meet their specific needs.
- Proposal Training & Coaching: Through our Proposal Training Center, we collaborate with clients to design tailored training and coaching programs focused on proposal and capture topics, aligned with their goals and objectives.
- Global Specialization: We specialize in aiding U.S. companies seeking to submit proposals to foreign governments and multilaterals, as well as facilitating access to U.S. value chains for foreign companies.

We also offer a free 30-minute consultation to discuss your specific needs and how our services can best support your objectives. We are committed to providing our clients with the highest quality services, and believe that our experience, expertise, and dedication to satisfaction make us the best choice for your proposal needs.
